

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 13

Thursday, March 20, 2014

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 3:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Cecelia Moore Wilhite of First Presbyterian Lakeland of Tampa, upon invitation of Rep. Cruz:

God of us all, bless, we pray you—the leaders of this state. Strengthen the courage of these representatives in this statehouse, here assembled. Sincere men and women who want to do the right thing—if only they can be sure of just what that may be from time to time. Make that plain to them, O God, and continue them on the right way for which they patiently and justly strive each day. Forgive us all the blunders we have made as well as the compromises we have made. Give to all of us the courage to admit mistakes, taking away our stubborn pride. Save us, O God, from ourselves and, even when necessary, from our friends as well as our enemies. May no personal ambition blind us to good opportunities. May we each battle hypocrisy and may we think of selfless service and not of personal gain. May these representatives of the people have the courage to lead the people of this state and give them the faith and the courage to serve the people of this state as well. As You have made and preserved us as a nation, and as this glorious state of Florida, we pray that You would now continue to mold us into a people worthy of this great heritage of public service. And it is in the name of the God of us all that we pray. Amen.

Amendment 2 (with title amendment)—Remove lines 114-215 and insert:

776.012 Use or threatened use of force in defense of person.—

(1) A person is justified in using or threatening to use force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that the person reasonably believes that such conduct is necessary to defend himself or herself or another against the other's imminent use of unlawful force. ~~However,~~

(2) A person is justified in using or threatening to use ~~the use of~~ deadly force ~~and does not have a duty to retreat if:~~

(+) He or she reasonably believes that using or threatening to use such force is necessary to prevent imminent death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another or to prevent the imminent commission of a forcible felony; ~~or~~

(2) ~~Under those circumstances permitted pursuant to s. 776.013,~~

Section 4. Subsections (1), (2), and (3) of section 776.013, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

776.013 Home protection; use or threatened use of deadly force; presumption of fear of death or great bodily harm.—

(1) A person is presumed to have held a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another when using or threatening to use defensive force that is intended or likely to cause death or great bodily harm to another if:

(a) The person against whom the defensive force was used or threatened was in the process of unlawfully and forcefully entering, or had unlawfully and forcibly entered, a dwelling, residence, or occupied vehicle, or if that person had removed or was attempting to remove another against that person's will from the dwelling, residence, or occupied vehicle; and

(b) The person who uses or threatens to use defensive force knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful and forcible entry or unlawful and forcible act was occurring or had occurred.

(2) The presumption set forth in subsection (1) does not apply if:

(a) The person against whom the defensive force is used or threatened has the right to be in or is a lawful resident of the dwelling, residence, or vehicle, such as an owner, lessee, or titleholder, and there is not an injunction for protection from domestic violence or a written pretrial supervision order of no contact against that person; or

(b) The person or persons sought to be removed is a child or grandchild, or is otherwise in the lawful custody or under the lawful guardianship of, the person against whom the defensive force is used or threatened; or

(c) The person who uses or threatens to use defensive force is engaged in a ~~criminal an unlawful~~ activity or is using the dwelling, residence, or occupied vehicle to further a ~~criminal an unlawful~~ activity; or

(d) The person against whom the defensive force is used or threatened is a law enforcement officer, as defined in s. 943.10(14), who enters or attempts to enter a dwelling, residence, or vehicle in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using or threatening to use force knew or reasonably should have known that the person entering or attempting to enter was a law enforcement officer.

(3) A person ~~who is not engaged in an unlawful activity and~~ who is attacked ~~in his or her dwelling, residence, or vehicle in any other place where he or she has a right to be~~ has no duty to retreat and has the right to stand his or her ground and use or threaten to use ~~meet force with~~ force, including deadly force, if he or she ~~uses or threatens to use force in accordance with s. 776.012(1) or (2) or s. 776.031(1) or (2) reasonably believes it is necessary to do so to prevent death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another or to prevent the commission of a forcible felony.~~

Section 5. Section 776.031, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

776.031 Use or threatened use of force in defense of property ~~others.~~—

(1) A person is justified in using or threatening to use ~~the use of~~ force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that the person reasonably believes that such conduct is necessary to prevent or terminate the other's trespass on, or other tortious or criminal interference with, either real property other than a dwelling or personal property, lawfully in his or her possession or in the possession of another who is a member of his or her immediate family or household or of a person whose property he or she has a legal duty to protect. ~~However,~~

(2) ~~A~~ the person is justified in using or threatening to use ~~the use of~~ deadly force only if he or she reasonably believes that such ~~conduct~~ force is necessary to prevent the imminent commission of a forcible felony. ~~A person does not have~~

House Resolutions Adopted by Publication

At the request of Rep. Young—

HR 9033—A resolution recognizing the critical mission of the American Red Cross in Florida and its Prepare Florida campaign.

WHEREAS, the American Red Cross is a humanitarian organization founded in 1881 and originally chartered by Congress as a federal instrumentality in 1900, but receives no federal funding, and

WHEREAS, 2014 marks the 133rd anniversary of the American Red Cross and the centennial of the organization's first chartered chapter in Florida, and

WHEREAS, the American Red Cross prevents and alleviates human suffering in the face of emergencies by mobilizing the power of volunteers and the generosity of donors, and

WHEREAS, American Red Cross disaster assistance is free, and 91 cents of every dollar donated goes directly to mission service delivery, and

WHEREAS, the American Red Cross has answered the call to assist and prepare Floridians before, during, and after disasters since 1901, and

WHEREAS, the American Red Cross in Florida, composed of five regions, has developed a 3-year, multi-million dollar statewide preparedness campaign, and

WHEREAS the Prepare Florida campaign has specific preparedness goals to increase feeding capacity from 250,000 to 500,000 meals per day; to increase outreach from 177,500 to 350,000 people; to increase volunteers from 4,500 to 10,000 trained community leaders; to train 500,000 people in life-saving first aid/CPR/AED skills; and to procure 15 new emergency response vehicles over a 3-year period, and

WHEREAS, March is recognized as "American Red Cross Month" across this nation, and

WHEREAS, the preparedness goals outlined in the American Red Cross Prepare Florida campaign and the organization's call for every resident of this state to assemble a disaster preparedness kit, make a plan, and be informed before a natural or man-made disaster strikes will save lives, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the American Red Cross in Florida and its Prepare Florida campaign are recognized for their critical mission and service to the State of Florida.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.17.

At the request of Rep. Gibbons—

HR 9035—A resolution designating March 23-29, 2014, as "Boys & Girls Club Week" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, the young people of Florida are the leaders of tomorrow, and

WHEREAS, many young people need professional youth services to help them reach their full potential, and

WHEREAS, there are 253 Boys & Girls Club facilities in Florida, providing services to more than 161,000 young people annually, and

WHEREAS, Florida Boys & Girls Clubs are places where great futures start and are at the forefront of efforts in mentoring, delinquency prevention, anti-bullying, and financial literacy, and

WHEREAS, the Boys & Girls Clubs: Florida Alliance helps ensure that our young people stay off the streets by offering them supportive sanctuaries and providing them with quality programs, and

WHEREAS, the Boys & Girls Clubs: Florida Alliance will celebrate National Boys & Girls Club Week 2014 along with more than 4,000 clubs and nearly 4 million young people nationwide, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That March 23-29, 2014, is designated as "Boys & Girls Club Week" in the State of Florida.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.17.
